

It took quite some time
It had to be just right
When it came, I knew
I'd found the perfect gift for you

1000 nights like this
A stale cigarette kiss
A drink you can't resist
And in your head a voice you'll always miss
1000 nights like this

Over the years, I'd splurge
To indulge your every urge
This is something new
My latest offering to you

1000 empty beds and sheets as cold as lead
A book you've already read
And when you wake
You'll wish that you were dead
With me

Ah, dead with me
Ah

Please, you must accept
Don't make me upset
I've had mine for a year or two
It's the gift that keeps on giving
And it's for you

1000 nights like this
A stale cigarette kiss
A drink you can't resist
And in your head a voice you always miss
1000 nights like this
You always miss
You always miss
You always miss
