

The one hungry life
My life with the other
She starts to smile
She smells like a lover
Something inside
Keeps telling me to hide
As she turns and smiles
Like a reptile, like a reptile

She smells like a wife
She smells like a mother
She smells like a sister
She smells like a lover

Something inside
Keeps telling me to hide
As she turns and smiles
Like a reptile, like a reptile

Stay away from me
Please stay away from me
Please stay away from me
Please stay away from me
Please stay away from me
Stay away from me
Stay away from me
Stay away from me
Stay away from me
Something inside
Keeps telling me to hide
As she turns and smiles
Like a reptile, like a reptile

Shhh... Shhh... Shhh... Shhh... Shhh...
