

Take me over, I'm lying down
I'm giving in to you
I'm a hurricane
I can't describe this feeling
Now that I've found this love
I'll do anything for you
Now that I've found this love

I'm a fire, burning like a house aflame
I am motionless
I can't move or see you fly
Now that I've found this love
I'll do anything for you
Now that I've found this love

Take me over, I'm lying down
I'm giving in
I'm a hurricane
Hurricane
Now that I've found this love
I'll do anything for you
