

I ask my self
Why did I come again
To find my own way to freedom
And the change is gonna come

I'm gonna find my way
find my way
Back to freedom

Chained by fear
My keeper was myself
And there's freedom inside
I woke up from a dream
The stars were in my eyes

Calling me back home
To sail my ship to freedom
And the change is gonna come

I'm gonna find my way
find my way
Back to Freedom

Find my way... (to fade out)
