

Slip the jimmy right down between the door's frame bust the lock there's no time for makin' mistakes quick in the car the alarm is shortly defused trip the wire the engine's singin' your tune depress the pedal it's time to make an escape no other car's around no witnesses' it's fail safe you turn the corner and see it coming towards you and in the dimly light reflects a roof of red and blue.

Grip the wheel so tight no not a muscle moves breathing's short and tight what are you gonna' do now Heart beats out of time as panic seizes you static clouds your mind will they connect the clues crime after crime it's so easy you can't lose.

Slip Jimmy's runnin' out of time it takes a second to lose what takes a life time to find.

The car moves past you as if it's all a daydream your free to go no one has noticed there's no crime scene you feel the laughter bubbling up and can't believe it's true but a rearview mirror shows two lights are creeping towards you they're getting closer so much closer at a fast pace slowly you speed up like a mouse caught in a rat race they're changing color so much brighter and there's somethin' more the piercing sound of a siren who's it comin' for.

Ready or not you go no turning back for you hot pursutes the show top of the evening news now the world is tuning in to watch your great escape an outcome you can't win will surely seal your fate crime after crime who'll catch you when you lose.

what takes a life time to find.

A little bit closer so soon you'll cross over little bit closer so soon you'll cross over
little bit closer so soon you'll cross over
little bit closer so soon you'll cross over

Your caravan of fans has grown on land and in the sky you feel their hunger closing in on you from every side with all your might you slam the gas to flee your hopeless plight but instead it sends you spinning, crashing, whirling through the night.

Torn metal all around entraps you in it's tomb sirens lights and sounds fade out and in from view now flames consume this place burn up into the sky a calm crosses the face of one who's out of time crime after crime who'll catch you when you die.

what takes a life time to find.
