

As I walk into the night
I don't feel that my feet have touched the ground
And I want to carry on
But I can't see anyone
And take the time

There may be troubles
In your mind
Maybe tomorrow
It could be fine

I feel like going home
But I don't know if our map will cover ?
And I feel there's something wrong
But I know it's just the time it takes to climb

There may be troubles
In your mind
Maybe tomorrow
It could be fine

There may be troubles
In your mind
Maybe tomorrow
It could be fine
