

I'll take you up above ground
Over filth, over fire
Newly emerged from damp rich earth
Every inch a new sensation
Stretches me out of my head
Out of my head in to his
To taste and smell myself

I'll take you up above ground
Over filth, over fire
Beyond everyday more than life
Over filth, over fire

More flesh wrapped around me
More weight on my limbs
More teeth, more hands, more heat
More breath down my throat

More flesh wrapped around me
More weight on my limbs
More teeth, more hands, more heat
More breath down my throat
More teeth, more hands, more heat
More breath down my throat

I'll take you up above the ground
Over filth, over fire
Out of my head into yours
To taste and smell myself
Over filth, overfire
