

welcome to my jealous face
I warn you now that this is not a happy place.
Welcome to my glass house
Well it will break real easy but it just won't fall down.

And if your worn down well you oughta be.
Come on let's leave this town oh come run with me

welcome to this dramatic role I took.
Lately not a day goes by without another word mistook.
Welcome to my glass house
well it will break real easy but it just won't fall down.

And if your worn down well you oughta be.
Come on let's leave this town oh come run with me
