

I was blind as a bat
And still knew
Where you were at
I was deaf and dumb
And still knew
That you're the only one.
I could show up at your door
And still know
What you're looking for.
I could wait in your line
And if you had no money
I would give you my last dime.

I never never never
Took it out
No, i never never never
Took it out on you
No, i never never say never
Take it out on you.

No, i never never never never
Took it out never never never
No, i never never never never
Take it out on you
Never never never
No, i never
Took it out
No, i never
Never say never
Take it out on you
Never say never
Never say never
Never say never
Never say never
Never never
