Before I begin the struggle I never win
Before I fall again
I would do anything
I would try anything

But maybe I belong this way
There’s always something wrong again
Now maybe I belong this way
It’s over, it’s over now

Before I’m afraid
There’s something I’d like to say
Before I go away
I would do anything
I would try anything

But maybe I belong this way
There’s always something wrong again
Yeah, maybe I belong this way
It’s over, it’s over now
