

The corners of my mind
They don't pay no mind
Let's leave them behind
The corners of my mind
They don't pay no mind
Let's leave them behind
Some say it's dangerous
Something my heart can never take
And I will never survive
But I am serious I'd rather that my heart should break before a thousand goodbyes
I don't fear the darkness when you're next to me
Or run away screaming like we're enemies I'll fight all the shadows 'cause
I'm runnin' free I'm not alone, I'm not alone!
I won't hear the whispers that I'll never spark
They've taken their time now I'm making my mark
Been forced at my dock now I've gotta embark I'm not alone
And I am not afraid of the dark
I wanna live my life
Don't wanna waste my time
Been always in the line
But never crossing lines I wanna live my life
Don't wanna waste my time
Been always in the line
But never crossing lines
Some say it's dangerous
Something my heart can never take
And I will never survive
But I am serious I'd rather that my heart should break before a thousand goodbyes
I don't fear the darkness when you're next to me
Or run away screaming like we're enemies

I'll fight all the shadows 'cause
I'm runnin' free I'm not alone, I'm not alone!
I won't hear the whispers that I'll never spark
They've taken their time now I'm making my mark
