

I think you're strange
You think I'm pretty
I want to hold the hand that lead me to your city
And then I'll hide and let you find me and take another step into the light that blinds me
Do you feel safe?
Do you feel safe?
I sing a song it's like a haiku
You sit and stare at me until I'm mad about you
And if that's wrong it doesn't matter
I'm gonna climb my way to heaven on your ladder
Do you feel safe?
Do you feel safe?
My head is spinning round
Bombshell I'm gonna dive right in to you
Open wide. I'm coming in.
Quick like a bee, stings then you lose it
I taste the honeysuckle every single minute
Do you feel safe?
Do you feel safe?
Do you feel me?
My head is spinning round
Bombshell I'm gonna dive right in
Hold still - I'm gonna dive right in to you
Open wide, I'm coming in!!!!
