

You think you can have both of them and I want you to know
That I'm in, I'm in
And this time I'm staying to bur the trail that you left, you left
And if I was cold, well then you would stay inside me, warm me
Here I'm safe so here I stay
Lift me out, lift the doubt
You asked me to say what I had done
I told you just like I told everyone
I still have some doubts that you are the reason
Still this is just so hard cause I know that I'll be left like always
Here I'm safe so here I stay
