

A strange car pulls up and he,
offer you a lift and you say you, don't wanna go and he takes out a gun, and forces you in,
Another ship has rolled out,
And then you're trapped in the back seat,
everything looks okay,
But who the hell is this person anyway?, Another ship has rolled out (repeat), You say you don't wanna to go, but now it's just a bit too late, Nothing you can do or say, will make this maniac go away, If you try and get his gun then, maybe you can get away, But everything you left inside, the place you left inside, the place you left before's, gonna die,
and then a cop pulls up and he,
offers you a lift and you say, you don't wanna go and he says, "just get in"!,
Another ship has rolled out,
and then you're trapped in the back seat,
everything looks okay,
but you won't trust anyone again anyway,
Another ship has rolled out,
Another ship has rolled out,
Another ship has rolled out
