

I've started to see you clearly today
If you really loved me I know you'd stay I've run so far just to be with you, just to hold your hand
Every word you say is planned to keep me smiling
Looks like the day has come to end
and the sun is shining
I know you said we're only friends
See that the sun keeps shining Im looking at you, your looking away Im starting to learn the games that you play I've run so far away, just to be with you, just to hold your hand
Every word you say is planned to keep me smiling
Looks like the day has come to end
and the sun is shining
I know you said we're only friends
See that the sun keeps shining (SPOKEN) You often said I was the only one for you I guess I didn't know you then as a friend Now everytime I pick up your photo I realise I have nothing to say to you except why? why?
Looks like the day had come to end
and the sun is shining
I know you said we're only friends
See that the sun keeps shining
and let the sun keep shining
and let the sun keep shining
and let the sun keep shining
on me
