

I don't understand how you came over me
When I saw your face, I hit the ground
And I've been trying hard
To get back on my feet
It's very difficult
'cause I'd really rather lie around

And I stand outside in the pouring rain
While my love for you drives me half insane
But I haven't very far to go
I thought I'd just let you know

I can't quite explain the magic in your eyes
When I see you smile, I start to fly
And I could analyse
Until the cows come home
But I can't figure out
How I'm going to get you alone

And I stand outside in the pouring rain
While my love for you drives me half insane
But I haven't very far to go
I thought I'd just let you know

And I stand outside in the pouring rain
While my love for you drives me half insane
But I haven't very far to go
I thought I'd just let you know
I thought I'd just let you know
I thought I'd just let you know

And I stand outside in the pouring rain
While my love for you drives me half insane

I thought I'd just let you know|
I thought I'd just let you know
I thought I'd just let you know
I thought I'd just let you know
