

So we'll just be
The greatest couple that never were
-and I won't think we
Stand a chance if we never did.
If you've never been mine,
Then I guess I can't be losing you:
So everything's all right
Your heart's not breaking,
And I don't feel as I do.
I know you're suffering
I put trouble where there wasn't any.
I know what I've done;
You know I take your words
For use as ammunition.
But I do it because
I'm scared and searching for ways that lead to you.
And I do it because
We're in love and it's obvious.
It's the rest of our lives
That's all you're making a difference to.
And it's the rest of our lives
I watch unfolding when I know I shouldn't do.
